Al Hadaf

A practical daf-yomi tool that explains and elaborates on one or two topics from each daf. Al Hadaf is a widely used 24-page English-language Daf Yomi journal sent out once a month (in advance of the upcoming dafim), via regular mail or e-mail, for a small annual subscription fee.

Since each dvar Torah is self-contained and includes all the necessary background information, it is an excellent study aid even for those with a more limited Gemara background.

It also serves as a wonderful, short, daily daf-related study program for those who are unable to learn the entire daf. And because it includes annotations and extensive Hebrew footnotes, Al Hadaf is appealing to rabbonim and is used by many maggidei shiur.

For more information or for a free sample, visit their website www.alhadafyomi.org or email congalhadaf@gmail.com or contact their office: Al Hadaf, P.O. Box 791, Monsey, NY 10952, ph. 845.356.9114.

AllDaf

Through AllDaf, learn the Daf like never before. Sit in on shiurim by world-renowned lecturers such as R' Elefant and R' Rosner. Uncover groundbreaking insights that enhance your learning and explore topics you love - such as Nach, Halacha, History, and Lomdus - through a personalized feed of supplementary clips and reference materials. App and website launching January 2020. Visit AllDaf.org for more information.

AnkiDaf

A powerful Chazarah tool empowering you to remember what you learned on the Daf. This free program tracks how well you remember each point on the Daf, and custom tailors a daily list of questions, enabling you to review only that which you are about to forget, providing an efficient method to retain your learning forever.

This Daf Yomi cycle, take your learning to a whole new level, visit www.ankidaf.com.

ArtScroll

Artscroll's Schottenstein English, Hebrew, and French editions have been prepared by a team of noted talmidei chachamim who extract the essence of the classic sources and commentators. The acclaimed series, which has merited the haskomos of Gedolei Yisroel in America and Eretz Yisroel, meets the needs of those who wish to study the Talmud in the classic manner, without oversimplification or extraneous material.

Both the Hebrew and English editions are now available in full and convenient compact sizes. 718.921.9000, www.artscroll.com

Bekitzur

A Hebrew-language publication, Bekitzur offers a synopsis of the main points of each daf. The publication is an excellent aid for lomdim who want a quick review of each day's daf and a helpful tool for remembering the material. It is prepared by Rabbi Yitzchak Hurvitz and is used by thousands of subscribers.

For a sample copy, please call 011-972-3-618-7895; fax 011-972-3-619-9188 or email bekitzur@zahav.net.il

Chavrusa

Chavrusa is a 60-volume Hebrew-language compilation of mefarshim on Shas Bavli. Its unique format combines an explanation of the Gemara text, with the relevant ha'oros of the Rishonim, Achronim, and past and current Gedolim excerpted at the bottom of the page in a clear and lucid summary.

Chazarah MP3

Chazara MP3 is a series of recorded shiurim covering all of Shas, Mishna Berurah, sections of Yoreh Deah, and all the Mishnayos in Shisha Sidrei Mishna. The purpose is to enable someone to review material that they're familiar with (ie; daf yomi) quickly and smoothly. Some have even been using it to learn new Gemara. Additionally, it helps people use their time productively when traveling, etc.

The Maggid Shiur is R' Ahron Zelikovitz. Every line of Gemara is read and translated in a clear and simple fashion, geared toward those with a yeshiva background. Almost all the Rashi's are spoken out as the Gemara is being explained. The approximate timing is 15 - 18 minutes a blatt.

Shiurim can be purchased on micro SD cards or downloaded at chazarahmp3.com or by phone order.

For more information, please call 718-646-1243, or email info@chazarahmp3.com.

Daf haChaim

A revolutionary three step program of studying and retaining the daf through visual learning. Also available on iOS and Android apps. This innovative video learning experience lets follow inside the daf simultaneously as the shiur proceeds. The Maggid Shiur is Rabbi Shloime Schwartzberg, a highly respected member of the Lakewood community and much sought after lecturer.

Accompanying the shiur are two short videos: a one minute introduction and a comprehensive five minute review. In these, the concepts and teachings of the daf are animated and illustrated on the screen, inscribing the daf visually and conceptually in our minds.

For more information, visit www.dafhachaim.org

Daf Notes

This English daily daf review presents an elucidated translation of the Gemara that is perfect for anyone who wants to gain a basic knowledge of the daily daf and may or may not be familiar with the inner workings of the Gemara. Produced by Rabbi Avrohom Adler of Cleveland, the review offer insights that provide a deeper understanding of the Gemara and fascinating discussions of halachic issues and ethical teachings based on the daily daf. A perfect way to prepare for the next day's Daf, or to "catch-up" when falling behind.

Free subscriptions are available by calling Rabbi Adler at 216.235.4330 or by emailing dafnotes@gmail.com.

Daf Plus - 8th Hour Program

The Daf Yomi Commission sponsors a weekly iyun shiur designed to deepen understanding of the sugya studied during the previous week. These Yiddish-language shiurim, which have attracted a wide and avid following, take place every Sunday morning at 11:00 AM in Khal Anshei Sfard of Borough Park, 4502 14th Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11219. Archived shiurim are available.
