

---

ANTI-SEMITES BLAME JEWS FOR BAD WEATHER

HATESVILLE, ALABAMA—At the 28th annual Jew-Haters Convention that recently concluded its three-day gathering in this backwoods Alabama hamlet, anti-Semites from around the world passed a resolution blaming Jews for all bad weather.

“Everyone knows that Jews control the weather,” said convention organizer Igg Norant. “Just like they control the banks, newspapers, Congress, Hollywood, and everything else in this danged country.”

Dumaz Kenbee, a conventioneer from Kentucky, detailed his specific complaints.

“Jews invented this whole global warming thing,” he declared, “just so they could sell us air conditioners. And when a snowstorm hits, they can’t wait to make us buy their shovels and snowplows. Not to mention heaters.”

“Icebergs, Goldbergs, it’s all the same,” Kenbee insisted.

The convention drew participants from as far away as Japan. Harry Kerrie, a Yokohama farmer, said that his entire rice crop was destroyed last year when a tsunami flooded his fields. He claims that the disastrous tidal wave was a Jewish conspiracy to put him out of business.

“You telling me tsunami isn’t a Yiddish word?” Kerrie shouted. “The Jews invented tsunamis!”

---

SONY CANCELS MOVIE DUE TO JEWISH PROTEST

HOLLYWOOD—Sony Pictures, the American movie giant, announced today that it was cancelling the release of its latest film, “The Marriage Interview,” which had been scheduled to open in theaters nationwide next week.

Lane D. Parsha, head of Sony’s Cinema Division, said the decision was made after hundreds of Jewish matchmakers, known as shadchanim, angrily stormed the movie lot to protest the film’s content.

“The Marriage Interview” tells the story of a professional matchmaker who impairs the potential engagement of an Orthodox Jewish man and woman by burdening their parents with irrelevant questions about the families’ religious history and habits.

At the end of the movie, the young couple kills the shadchan and then gets married anyway.

At a news conference, Rabbi Kane Yirbu, a spokesperson for the protestors, said that the movie cast matchmakers in a false light.

“It’s a total misrepresentation of the work we do,” Yirbu declared. “We ask many questions of the families to protect their children, not to sabotage a possible union.”

In the film, the matchmaker, played by Mel Gibson, gives each family a 75-page questionnaire to complete in writing, with queries such as: “Did your daughter ever have a yeast infection on Passover, and, if so, did you allow her to sit at the seder table?”

Rabbi Yirbu said he was particularly irked by a scene in the film where a family member refers to the lengthy questionnaires as “weapons of match destruction.”

“We make plenty of gelt off a shidduch,” the rabbi noted. “So why would we try to prevent it from happening?”

Sony said it may reshoot the movie’s ending and then release the film through its Israeli subsidiary, Sony Yisroel.

In the new version, the couple would break up before their wedding when the girl falls in love and elopes with the shadchan.

“And they live happily ever after!” Rabbi Yirbu beamed.

---

NETANYAHU REVEALS HIS PLAN B FOR CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, D.C.—After delivering a controversial speech to the United States Congress this past Tuesday, Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu disclosed today that he had an alternate plan which he ultimately chose to nix.

“Instead of speaking before Congress,” the Prime Minister revealed, “I had considered singing for them instead.”

Netanyahu explained that by delivering his message in song, it would have quelled critics who were vehemently opposed to his speaking.

Asked which songs he would have performed, the Prime Minister replied, “I’d have opened with the Beach Boys’ classic, ‘Bomb Bomb Bomb, Bomb Bomb Iran.’”

That number, Netanyahu said, would have been followed by Celine Dion's "A Nuke Day Has Come."

According to the Prime Minister, he next planned to render a medley: the Burt Bacharach favorite, "Rockets Keep Fallin' on My Head," leading into the popular song from Annie that begins, "Hassan'll come out to mar us."

Netanyahu said he had even intended to create a Congressional sing-along, with Republicans participating in rousing renditions of "Yes, Sir, That's My Bibi" and "Embraceable Jew."

The Prime Minister had also invited President Obama to sing a solo, "I Am Barack, I'm on an Island," but the President refused.

Likewise, Congresswoman Nancy Pelosi passed on performing "It's Too Partisan, and I'll Cry If I Want To."

In the end, Netanyahu opted to speak before Congress instead of singing. Asked why, the Prime Minister simply said, "Harmony with America is a little tricky right now."

=====

COMPANY ACCUSED OF DEFLATING MATZO BALLS

NEW YORK, NY—Manischewitz, a leading manufacturer of kosher food products, was accused this week of selling a new line of Passover matzo meal that intentionally deflates the size of matzo balls.

The New York State Attorney General's office said it has received dozens of complaints from Jewish homemakers who have begun their Passover cooking preparations and have discovered the inferior matzo balls produced by the mix.

"The balls are definitely deflated," said Eliasz Feit, a state prosecutor.

Manischewitz spokesperson Ken Zein vigorously denied the charge.

"Our matzo meal has always yielded big balls," Zein insisted. "We would have no reason to deflate them, this year or any year."

A number of kosher homemakers disagree.

"Not only are the balls smaller, but they have an odd blue color that I've never seen before," said Bracha Achrona of Queens. "I hate to complain, but blue balls leave me frustrated."

Brooklyn housewife Beth Kisay said that her matzo balls, made with the Manischewitz mix, came out so tiny that they accidentally rolled off her soup spoon and smashed on the kitchen floor.

"I busted my balls," said Kisay, "and I am not a ball buster by nature."

Another customer, Hannah Kuh of the Bronx, said, "For my family seder, I always make soup with two big matzo balls in each bowl. I can't serve these deflated balls. It's embarrassing. And I can't just grow a pair, either. I need a reliable mix."

The Attorney General's office said it will sue Manischewitz if more complaints are received in the coming weeks.

"It's a case of deflated balls and inflated prices," said Feit. "Another Passover rip-off for kosher consumers."

=====

D.C. MIKVEH RABBI DEFENDS HIMSELF IN COURT

WASHINGTON, DC—Rabbi Bury Fiendel, the Washington, D.C., congregational rabbi accused of secretly taping women as they disrobed to immerse in a Jewish ritual bath known as a mikveh, appeared in criminal court today to face charges against him.

The rabbi, who entered the courtroom without a lawyer, insisted on representing himself.

Rabbi Fiendel was arrested last October, during the Jewish holiday of Sukkot, on charges of voyeurism.

"These charges stem from a total misunderstanding," the rabbi told Judge Minna A. Holz. He explained that the Sukkot holiday includes a traditional ceremony called "simchat beit hashoeva," literally meaning "the rejoicing of the place of the water drawing."

"I was simply rejoicing by the water," the rabbi insisted.

Furthermore, Fiendel claimed that filming women at the mikveh was part of his course work for an underwater photography class he was taking at Georgetown University on a Jacques Cousteau Fellowship.

Asked why, if the filming was a legitimate school project, he hid his camera in a clock radio, the rabbi replied, "It helps me keep track of time. Call me a clock sucker."

Although men also use the synagogue's mikveh, Rabbi Fiendel vehemently denied filming any of them.

"Hey, this is Washington, DC," the rabbi insisted. "Not AC/DC."

=====

[advertisement]

This Passover, indulge yourself at Jerusalem’s newest recreation resort...

THE HOOT SPA...it’s a hoot!

Conveniently located on the Temple Mount, just a stone’s throw from the Wailing Wall.

Enjoy these luxurious features and services:

--A full head and body massage--Palestinian officials will rub you the wrong way while working to manipulate your mind about the Temple. That’s Hoot Spa!

--A soothing facial--Two-faced Arab leaders will sling mud at you, aiming to cloud your vision, erase unsightly Green Lines, and seize control of your entire body. That’s Hoot Spa!

--A polished manicure/pedicure--Islamic extremists will give you the finger treatment as they toe the line against Israel’s right to exist. That’s Hoot Spa!

--A hot tub soak--Find yourself in hot water when a U.N. commission hurls war-crime charges at you after you’ve done all you can to spare innocent lives. That’s Hoot Spa!

--A relaxing sauna--You’ll be exposed to plenty of hot air as you sweat out international protests favoring BDS and a Palestinian state. That’s Hoot Spa!

So why wait? Join the multitudes around the world who have already discovered Hoot Spa!

Hoot Spa...Do you have the nerve to try it?

=====

AT THE MOVIES

American Snooper—D.C. mikveh rabbi is exposed

Goyhood—Gentiles recall their youth

The Grand Budapest Kotel—Zionists reject offer to establish a Jewish state in Hungary

Gone Curl—Rebellious chasid cuts off his sidelocks

Birdbrain (or the Unexpected Virgin of Ignorance)—Islamic martyrs’ heavenly reward is bogus

The Imitation Dame—The Bruce Jenner story

Telma—Israeli remake of “Selma”

The Theory of Nothing—Documentary about “Seinfeld”

Whiptush—Jewish child gets spanked

Two Dates, No Flight—Chasidic couple socializes at the airport during an airlines strike

Loxcatcher—Congregant races to kiddush after services

Into the Goods—History of Jewish peddlers in America

Fifty Shades and Chandeliers—Boro Park home is decorated

IN THE THEATER

Honeymoon in Oy Vegas!—Chasan abandons kallah for showgirl

Constipations—Hotel guests suffer during Pesach

The Curious Incident of the God in the Night-Time—The Almighty delivers the Jews from Egypt

Doctor Zhivago--Jewish girl brags about her boyfriend

The Elephant Mench—On the ark, Noah treats his animals with respect

Pish in the Dark—Sleepy man mistakes refrigerator bulb for bathroom light

A Gentleman’s Guide to Blood and Maror—Recitation of the Passover Haggadah

The Heini Chronicles—Woman worries that her tuchus looks fat

It’s Only to Pray—Synagogue security guard checks congregants at the door

You Can’t Take It with You—Mohel buries foreskin in the ground

=====